Continued from Saturday.

"Thank you," she answered. "I may be very glad to ask. I shall remember." She rose and moved to the stairs. "We had better descend now. The rocking chair felt like it was on fire. I don't want to sit on the bare floor of the dining room. Then a husky voice called 'Bland.' Mr. Magee felt his hand grasped by a much smaller one, and before he knew it he had been hurried to the shadows of the landing. 'The fifth key,' whispered a scared little voice in his ear. And then he felt the faint brushing of finger tips across his lips. A small Beside seized him to grasp those fingers and hold them on the lips they had scarcely touched. But the impulse was lost in the thrill of seeing the dining room door thrown open and a great bulk of a man cross the floor of the office and stand beside Bland's chair. At his side was a thin wail who had not justly been termed the mayor of Reuton's shadow.

CHAPTER IX.

The Mayor Begins a Vigil.

"SLEEP!" bellowed the big man. "How's this for a watch dog, Lou?" "Right on the job, ain't it?" sneered the thin one. Mr. Bland started suddenly from slumber, and looked up into the eyes of the newcomers. "Hello, Cargan," he said. "Hello, Lou! For the love of heaven, don't shout so. The place is full of them." "Full of what?" asked the mayor. "Of spotters, maybe—I don't know what they are. There's an old high brow and a fresh young guy, and two women." "People," gasped the mayor. "People—here?" "You're asleep, Bland." "No, I'm not. Cargan!" cried the "Clear out," he snarled. "I'll go down and greet our guests." He felt her grasp his arm suddenly as though in fear, but he shook off her hand and debonairly descended to the group below.

ORDER OF PUBLICATION.

STATE OF WEST VIRGINIA.
At Rules held in the office of the Clerk of the Circuit Court of Harrison County, on Monday, the 2nd day of March, 1914, the following order was entered:
Annie Oborski, Petitioner.
Upon petition filed in the consolidated chancery causes of Peter Bournos et al. v. Walter Brisky, and Union National Bank v. Walter Brisky.

Peter Bournos, Adam Gers, Union National Bank of Charleston, a corporation, Howard J. James and Walter Brisky, alias Walter Oborski, Defendants.

Object of Suit.
The object of the above entitled cause is to establish a trust in defendant, Walter Brisky, alias Walter Oborski, for the benefit of plaintiff, Annie Oborski, in and to an undivided half interest in lot No. 23 of Summit Park in Addition to East Charleston, Harrison County, West Virginia, as shown on plat thereof in Deed Book No. 157, page 454, in the office of the County Clerk of said County, together with house No. 18 thereon; being the same premises conveyed to said Walter Brisky by West Improvement Company by deed dated April 2, 1913, recorded in Deed Book No. 217, page 99, in the office aforesaid; and for a conveyance of said half interest to said plaintiff free and acquit of liens, as her sole and separate estate, and other equitable relief.

And it appearing from an affidavit filed in said cause that the said Walter Brisky, alias Walter Oborski, is a non-resident of this State, it is ordered that he do appear within one month from the date of the first publication of this order and do what is necessary to protect his interests herein.

Given under my hand this 2nd day of March, 1914.
I. WADE COFFMAN, Clerk.
ROBERT R. WILSON,
Counsel for Plaintiff.
